

WEBSITE RESOURCES

GENERAL SITES

www.AmarilloSymphony.org

The online presence for your Amarillo Symphony

www.sfskids.org

San Francisco Symphony's interactive kids website

www.nyphilkids.org

New York Philharmonic's interactive kids website

www.playmusic.org

American Symphony Orchestra League's interactive kids website

http://www.menc.org/guides/etiquette/etiquette\_home.html

The MENC guide to concert etiquette

www.meetthemusic.org

A project of the American Symphony Orchestra League, this site features descriptions of classical compositions and includes audio samples.

www.classicsforkids.com

Audio recordings and activities for kids based on classical repertoire.

www.dsokids.org

Dallas Symphony Orchestra's interactive kids website

ABOUT ELLIS ISLAND: THE DREAM OF AMERICA

www.PropulsiveMusic.com

This site provides extensive information about Peter Boyer and his music.

ABOUT VARIATIONS ON AMERICA

http://metmagazine.com/mag/theme\_variations/

This lesson plan explores the concept of variations using Charles Ives work as a basis for the lesson.

<http://lessons.usamusic.org/109.html>

A lesson plan exploring the musical concept of variation using Charles Ives work.

<http://www.charlesives.org/>

The Charles Ives Society

<http://www.a2so.com/curriculum/ives/ives.pdf>

This lesson plan from the Ann Arbor Symphony includes listening maps for Variations on America.